2. Funds/Capitals for World Fashion City (WTX®-World TradePolis®) and World Fashion Bank®(TBD/IO) @ Wall Street

Since the middle of the 20th century, New York City, represented by Wall Street, has been described as a leading financial centre. New York City remains the largest centre for trading in public equity and debt capital markets, driven in part by the size and financial development of the U.S. economy. The NYSE and NASDAQ are the two largest stock exchanges in the world. New York also leads in hedge fund management; private equity; and the monetary volume of mergers and acquisitions. Several investment banks and investment managers headquartered in New York City are important participants in other financial centres.
